The more you get to know us, the more you'll know why the bond we have with our clients is so long-lasting. It's because we create deep and trusting relationships with each client.

After all, we've been right here in the heart of Boston for nearly two centuries, personally guiding generations of New Englanders with conservative, yet forward thinking, investment management advice and sophisticated tax, trust and estate planning.

If you're attracted to the true value of an individual relationship with highly personalized service, please call Charlie Haydock '74 at 617-557-9800.

LECTURES
Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study
www.radcliffe.harvard.edu
All events are free and open to the public, although some require registration.

Siting Julia: A Julia Child Centenary Symposium
The Schlesinger Library, which houses Child’s extensive papers, hosts this event featuring speakers from three “sites” that influenced the chef: post-World War II Paris, Cambridge, and national television. To register, visit www.radcliffe.harvard.edu/event/2012-siting-julia.

Cloudy with a Chance of Solutions: The Future of Water offers a roundtable discussion among experts in environmental contaminants, promising technologies, and the role of commercial and governmental interests in water supplies.

The Take Note conference surveys the way notes have been taken across history, among various forms of media, and in different locales, as well as what’s changing—or not—in the digital age. To register, visit www.radcliffe.harvard.edu/event/2012-take-note.

Events listings also appear in the University Gazette, accessible via this magazine’s website, www.harvardmagazine.com.
